

Edinburgh

Glasgow

Aberdeen

Please help support Edenscott

The Ben Nevis

Challenge 2014

edenscott in aid of

The Richmond Fellowship
Scotland

The Richmond Fellowship Scotland

Putting their energy and endurance to the test, twenty one employees from Scottish recruitment business Eden Scott are embarking on an epic climb of Britain's highest peak to raise money for The Richmond Fellowship Scotland.

Ben Nevis stands at 1,352m and the team are undertaking a rigorous and gruelling training programme before tackling the mighty mountain on the 31 May 2014. To follow the teams progress, visit www.edenscott.com/blog

All of the money raised will provide social care services to those with mental health difficulties, learning disabilities, autism, dementia or alcohol and drug related issues.

Date: Saturday 31 May 2014

Target to Raise: £2,000

DONATE TODAY

All donations are kindly accepted via: <https://mydonate.bt.com/fundraisers/edenscott>

Or email Nicolle Sinclair at nicolle.sinclair@edenscott.com for more information on how you can show your support.

About Eden Scott

Established over ten years ago, Eden Scott employs over seventy recruitment consultants across its offices in Edinburgh, Glasgow and Aberdeen.

The business delivers a range of often complex recruitment solutions in both professional and technical staffing markets across permanent, temporary and contract positions.

About The Richmond Fellowship

The Richmond Fellowship Scotland is a charity which supports over 2000 people across Scotland with a broad range of needs to live as independently as possible in their own homes and communities.